Re: Sonix Medical Resources
Case #:09-77781

Dear Hon. Dorothy Eisenberg,

I am writing to you regarding the above case with Sonix Medical Resources. I am an employee of Sonix Medical Resources of 7 years.

Sonix has taken monies out of my paycheck over the last 3 years that were suppose to be contributions to my 401K. Starting 1/1/2007 to 12/31/2009 $4913.75 of those dollars have never been deposited into my 401K account. Sonix has kept these dollars for themselves. I have attached end of year statements from Fidelity as well as a copy of my W2 for all three years to prove the discrepancies.

There has been rumor that the court has been informed by the Sonix attorneys that the only monies not deposited into the employee 401K accounts were employer match dollars. This is not true. (Although they also did not follow through with the promise of a match to the employee contribution. That is another story.) The $4913.75 mentioned above was removed from wages earned by me and taken by Sonix. Not to mention any interest I would have earned on those dollars if they had been placed properly and timely into my 401K account as well.

I appreciate your reading this letter and any help you can provide me and the other employees of Sonix who are in similar situations.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Total dollar amount owed to Jeanne Hennessy from Sonix Medical Resources that was deducted from her pay check as a contribution to her 401K that was never deposited in her 401K is 4913.75. See attached paperwork.

This dollar amount is not to be confused with the monies Sonix promised to match in the 401K. This dollar amount represents what Sonix retained for themselves out of Jeanne Hennessy's payroll instead of depositing in her 401K as expected.

2009

My contribution according to my W2 was $4352.14

Received by Fidelity was $2633.71

Difference of $1718.43 owed to my 401K by Sonix

This does not include the employer (Sonix) match that was promised and not delivered.
This $1718.43 is the dollar amount taken from my paycheck that was suppose to be deposited in my 401K by Sonix that was never deposited. It was kept by Sonix.
